Calling all LEGO® Lovers!

Through September 15, Art Museum admission is FREE to anyone donating a “bag of bricks” (at least 10 new/gently used LEGO® blocks) to the Museum. (The donation box is in the Museum admission area.) Get your kids and grandkids involved in helping us make a “creation station” available to all the children who visit during the special exhibition The Art of the Brick this fall. After use in programming, any surplus LEGO® blocks will be donated to area charities. For more info, contact Linda Rodriguez, Curator of Youth Education, at 361/825-3508.
